Do you know what the Red and Bonita flow is after the spill? Has it dropped?

Hi, Craig.

I didn't know for sure what you were looking for when Dave said you wanted flow data from the Gold King and other mines. Attached is a combination of 2 documents that I had sent to Steve in draft form. I'll leave it as draft for now since Steve hasn't had a chance to review it. Please let me know if this is what you were looking for or if you wanted something different.
